

JOIN MEDIA SCHOLARS!

Learn About the Role of Media in Life

Take classes about how all forms of media affect every day life. You will learn about the history of technology and entertainment and how it has evolved to this day.

Meet Professionals in Media Careers

Media Scholars offers you with the opportunity to get in contact with professionals in careers such as journalism and advertising. This can help you with figuring out your own career and making connections.

Gain Opportunities to be Involved on Campus

Media Scholars helps students find opportunities to get engaged on campus in fields of media. For example, students can participate in the campus radio station or the school newspaper.

Participate in Out of Classroom Experiences

Media Scholars offers field trips to areas such as the Newseum, NBC Studios in New York, SiriusXM and The Washington Post.

Further Your Own Career

All of these opportunities that Media Scholars offers will aid you in furthering your own career. From the new skills, knowledge, and connections you will have made, you will be in an ideal position to advance in the career of your choice, whether it be related to media or not at all.